GO BIG READ

2011 Dane County Go Big Read Selection

The selection for the annual GO BIG READ event is Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nazario

Nazario tells the story of Enrique's odyssey to find his mother, after she left him with family in Honduras to go to the U.S. to provide a better life for him. The story recounts Enrique's journey as he heads north, as do thousands of immigrant children, clinging to the tops and sides of freight trains.

An Evening with Sonia Nazario

Varsity Hall, Union South

This public presentation is free and open to all students/staff/community members. For more information, contact: gobigread@library.wisc.edu, 608-265-2755.

MONDAY NIGHT BOOK CLUB

Monday, September 26th, 7 PM
The Lacuna
by Barbara Kingsolver

This rich novel will take you through some dramatic historical events of the early 20th century and demonstrate how viewpoints and bigotry are created by an avaricious media and political opportunism. Through this story, you'll follow the epic journey of a man whose life intertwines with Mexico City artists, Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera.

GREEN TUESDAY

Tuesday, October 4th, 6:30 PM
Community Room
Gasland

The largest domestic natural gas drilling boom in history is happening in the United States right now. The Halliburton-developed drilling technology called "fracking" or hydraulic fracturing has unlocked a "Saudi Arabia of natural gas" just beneath us. But is fracking safe? When filmmaker Josh Fox is asked to lease his land for drilling, he embarks on a cross-country road trip to find the answer to this question. A nearby Pennsylvania town was recently drilled, and reports are that residents are able to light their drinking water on fire. This is just one of the many absurd and astonishing revelations Josh uncovers. Part verite` travelogue, part expose, part mystery, and part bluegrass banjo meltdown, Gasland is a cross-country odyssey with unexpected humor, uncovering a trail of secrets, lies, and contamination. Also, Climate Wisconsin short, Forestry.
