

Dain has a degree in wildlife management and grew up in the outdoors and on a farm. He currently works for the Village of Cross Plains Parks Department participating in the development and maintenance of Village parks and conservancy land and has been managing land and growing/cultivating native plants, fruit trees, and mushrooms for the past 10 years.

