

IMAGINE YOUR STORY

SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAM 2020 JUNE 15TH – JULY 31ST

Let's stretch our imaginations and explore stories, music, games and more to see how far we can travel into a land of make-believe, right from home. Keep track of how much you read to earn badges, and a chance at a grand prize! When you complete your reading log, you'll earn a new book too. Throughout the summer there will be online performances, storytimes, exotic animals to meet, and more. Registration begins June 15th. Sign up online, and let your imagination take you on a grand adventure! Preregistration is required for all online programs, go to www.rgpl.org for more information. If you do not have internet connection, ask us for a paper form, you can participate too!

We are hoping to gather outside the library for this live performance! If not, we will bring it to you via Zoom. Register to attend, and we'll keep you up to date! For a taste of Nickey visit www.nickeyfynn.com.

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 10AM: DRUM CIRCLE WITH ELMORE LAWSON - Learn traditional chants and rhythms from different cultures. Come join the circle and explore your own inner rhythm! Drums provided, if we can hold the performance outside the library. Otherwise we will bring it to you via Zoom. Register soon, and we will keep you informed.

ONCE UPON A STORYTIME (AGES 2-6)

All storytimes will be offered via Zoom on Thursdays at 10 AM – sign up for each session and get your online link.

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 10AM: SING ALONG WITH SARINA PARTRIDGE - Join ethnic musician, artist and educator, Sarina's online singing class for kids. Sarina will add a new repertoire to your satchel of songs. As Sarina says, Kids know what singing is for . . . It's for weaving into the daily work of living, learning, playing, dancing and exploring! It's about expressing, not perfecting. Take a sneak peek: www.sarinapartridge.com

MONDAY - FRIDAY, JUNE 22 - 26, 10AM: CREATIVE PLAY

STORYTIMES WITH JOHANNA GORMAN-BAER Join us each morning this week as we use our imaginations to connect, create, and explore through virtual storytimes with teaching artist Johanna Gorman-Baer. Stories will serve as a jumping off point for creative play, and occasionally music, crafts, and other activities will make each session exciting! Taking ideas from the group participants and folding them together, we can change each day's story and make it our very own. Elements of mindfulness and emotional literacy will be included in each session. Join Johanna 10 minutes before and after each Zoom session for introductions, questions, and social interaction between participants.

This weeklong session has a class limit of 12 families – register early! Plan on having at least one adult attend each morning with your child(ren).
