

TAILS AND TALES

Summer Library Program 2021
June 14th – August 6th
Registration begins June 1st

Magic, stories, nature exploration, and feathered friends will keep you entertained and engaged this summer as we learn about and celebrate our animal kingdom. Keep track of how much you read to earn badges and a book of your choice! Throughout the summer there will be online performances, storytimes from around town, DIY take home kits, and more. Sign up online with our reading program software, Beanstack, and let your imagination take you on a grand adventure! Preregistration is required for all online programs. Go to www.rgpl.org for more information. Want to go device free? Ask us for a paper reading log.

Programs Virtually for Everyone

(All programs offered online unless otherwise specified. Register at www.rgpl.org, and include your email. You will be sent a link to attend.)

Monday, June 14, 1 PM: Magic Morgan and Liliana

Magic Morgan and Liliana combine the art of illusion and comedy to give the audience a program of humor, magic, mime and more. Prepare to be dazzled! <https://www.magicmorgan.com/>

Wednesday, July 14, 1 PM: Stories in nature with Coral Conant Gilles - Trot, sing, wiggle, dance, and hunt along with Coral and the animals in her stories. Then grab your portable devices, and head outside to explore together - APART! Coral will provide guidance, inspiration, and activities to guide us. We'll share exciting discoveries with each other!

Materials packets available at the library starting one week before the program.

Wednesday, August 4th, 10:30 AM: Hoo's Woods

Raptor Center – Come see some of the winged residents of Hoo's Woods and learn all about the falcons, eagles, owls and other birds that live there. Don't miss this chance to meet Center director, Dianne Moller, who will bring some amazing birds right to the library. <https://hooswoods.org/>

This program will take place outside in front of the library! Due to social distancing, space is limited. Register early!

Tuesday Takeaways

Magic tricks, dragon marionettes, kaleidoscopes, and more - we're bringing the adventure to you this summer! The Library is giving out a new cool Maker Takeaway Kit each week of Summer Library Program-free and fun!

Some fun right at home!

Here are some activities to do at home! For each one you complete you can earn a virtual badge on the Beanstack program or app. Send us a picture of your finished product for our online gallery, too! If you are not using Beanstack, come and get a sticker or bookmark at the library after you send in your photo.

1. Attend at least 3 library programs and win a magic wand!
2. Dress up like your favorite book character.
3. Create a cover for an animal legend or trickster tale you imagine and bring it to the library to be displayed in our library window gallery.
4. Create a reading nook somewhere in your house or yard.
5. Read a story to your pet, or write to a Puppy Pen Pal! (see website)

All programs are subject to change. As we are all aware . . . life is full of surprises!
