ECO MOVIE AND GREEN TUESDAYS

Last year's Eco Film series has a new name! Green Tuesdays Films and Lectures, a series of free films, presentations, and conversation, will be held at the Rosemary Garfoot Public Library on the first Tuesday of each month. We are kicking off the series with the award-winning and seriously funny documentary film, The Yes Men Fix the World, and More Jam, More Jobs, a student short from UW-Madison that shows one woman's attempt to convince twelve sororities to buy local. The films will be shown on Tuesday, October 5th at 6:30 p.m. in the library story time room. Please call the library at 798-3881 to register.

The Green Tuesdays Films & Lectures series has been presented in Monona for a couple of years, but this year the Rosemary Garfoot Public Library has joined in partnership with several Dane County citizen groups in an effort to expand awareness and discussion about sustainability. The film series will be shown in a different participating community each week, so if you miss it at the Rosemary Garfoot Public Library, you can see it a different week in another community. Check out the library website (www.rgpl.org) for a circuit calendar and information about the films and presentations.

The series is sponsored by The Natural Step Monona in collaboration with City of Middleton Sustainability Committee, Oregon Working To Live Sustainably (OWLS), Mt. Horeb Area Sustainability Network, RGPL Green Tuesdays, Cottage Grove Green Tuesdays, and the Nelson Institute, and is supported by a grant from the Dane County Environmental Council.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP

The library runs an on-going food drive for the Mazomanie Food Pantry that serves not only Cross Plains, Black Earth and Mazomanie, but also much of the surrounding rural area. The recession has hit many families hard, and the need continues to grow. The pantry is low on everything, especially fruit and vegetables. So when you're at the grocery store, please grab an extra grocery item to drop off during your next library trip.
